

RUBRIC FOR SIGNIFICANT SENTENCES: "AIN'T I A WOMAN?"

1		2		3		4
Has quote but no, little, or faulty explanation		Has quote and explanation but no link to the author's argument		Has quote with fairly good explanation that somewhat links to the author's argument		Has quote with well-explicated link to author's argument
"If my cup won't hold but a pint and your holds a quart, wouldn't you be mean not to let me have my little half-measure full?"	She is talking about cooking.	"If my cup won't hold but a pint and your holds a quart, wouldn't you be mean not to let me have my little half-measure full?"	Truth is saying people are mean if they don't allow others to use all they have.	"If my cup won't hold but a pint and your holds a quart, wouldn't you be mean not to let me have my little half-measure full?"	Truth is saying people are mean if they don't allow others to use all they have which shows she believes in equal rights.	"If my cup won't hold but a pint and your holds a quart, wouldn't you be mean not to let me have my little half-measure full?"	This sentence provides one of Truth's reasons for her argument, which is that women should have the same rights as men. Sojourner Truth is saying that even if one group isn't as smart as another (their cup only holds a pint where another's holds a quart), each group should be able to use their full potential regardless of whether it is less than another's.